“Putting You Inside the Gospel Music Industry”

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Charlotte, NC - May 20, 2003

GOSPELflava.com Presents New Gospel Video Channel

GOSPELflava.com, the leading Gospel music website, joins forces with Streamingfaith.com to offer a new medium for Gospel labels, Gospel artists, and Gospel music fans.

In an ongoing effort to grow its offerings to its readers, GOSPELflava.com launches a twenty-four hour online video channel. Chief Operating Officer James D. Robinson, Jr. says “GOSPELflava.com has always done what makes sense for us and our readers. This partnership with Streamingfaith.com brings together the powerful combination of video and content. Together we are able to offer a full informational plate for our viewers at absolutely no charge.”

Quite amazingly, GOSPELflava.com has no full time staff. For the last six years partners Stan North, Melanie Clark and James Robinson have worked diligently at night, on the weekends and in their “spare” time to bring forth excellence in web ministry. All proceeds earned from advertising and marketing go back into sustaining the ministry, directly to operational and infrastructure expenses - never once to a paycheck. Your support is key in this new endeavour.

The channel currently features videos from leading Gospel labels EMI Gospel and Verity Records. Other labels will be added. “These labels consistently partner with us in breaking cutting edge technology. They not only recognize trends in getting their artists out there – they set them”, says Melanie Clark, GOSPELflava.com’s CEO.

With a current video schedule that includes Gospel phenoms Fred Hammond, Bishop T.D. Jakes and the Potters House Mass Choir, Hezekiah Walker, Smokie Norful, Vickie Winans and John P. Kee and others, and with technology that caters to a range of internet connection speeds, the appeal is wide.

GOSPELflava.com’s President, Stan North, remarks “We are excited about this new venture but even moreso about our continuing effort to bring excellence and integrity to the web and to the Gospel music industry.”

GOSPELflava.com is an exclusively online Gospel music entertainment media that sees well over 4.5 million hits and 300, 000 viewers monthly.
